

【Open Recruitment】

【Through Nominating Authorities】

Call for applications

Applicants find Host Researcher

Communication between Applicant and Host Researcher

Applications submitted to Host Researcher by Applicants

Applications submitted to Nominating Authorities by Applicants

Applications submitted to JSPS by Host Institutions

Screening by Nominating Authorities

Screening by JSPS Headquarter

Selections made

Fellowships begin (research starts)

All applicants must be accepted by a host researcher prior to applying

- Ask your academic advisor/colleagues
- Read academic journals
- Search researchers in Japan at

→
<http://researchmap.jp/search/>

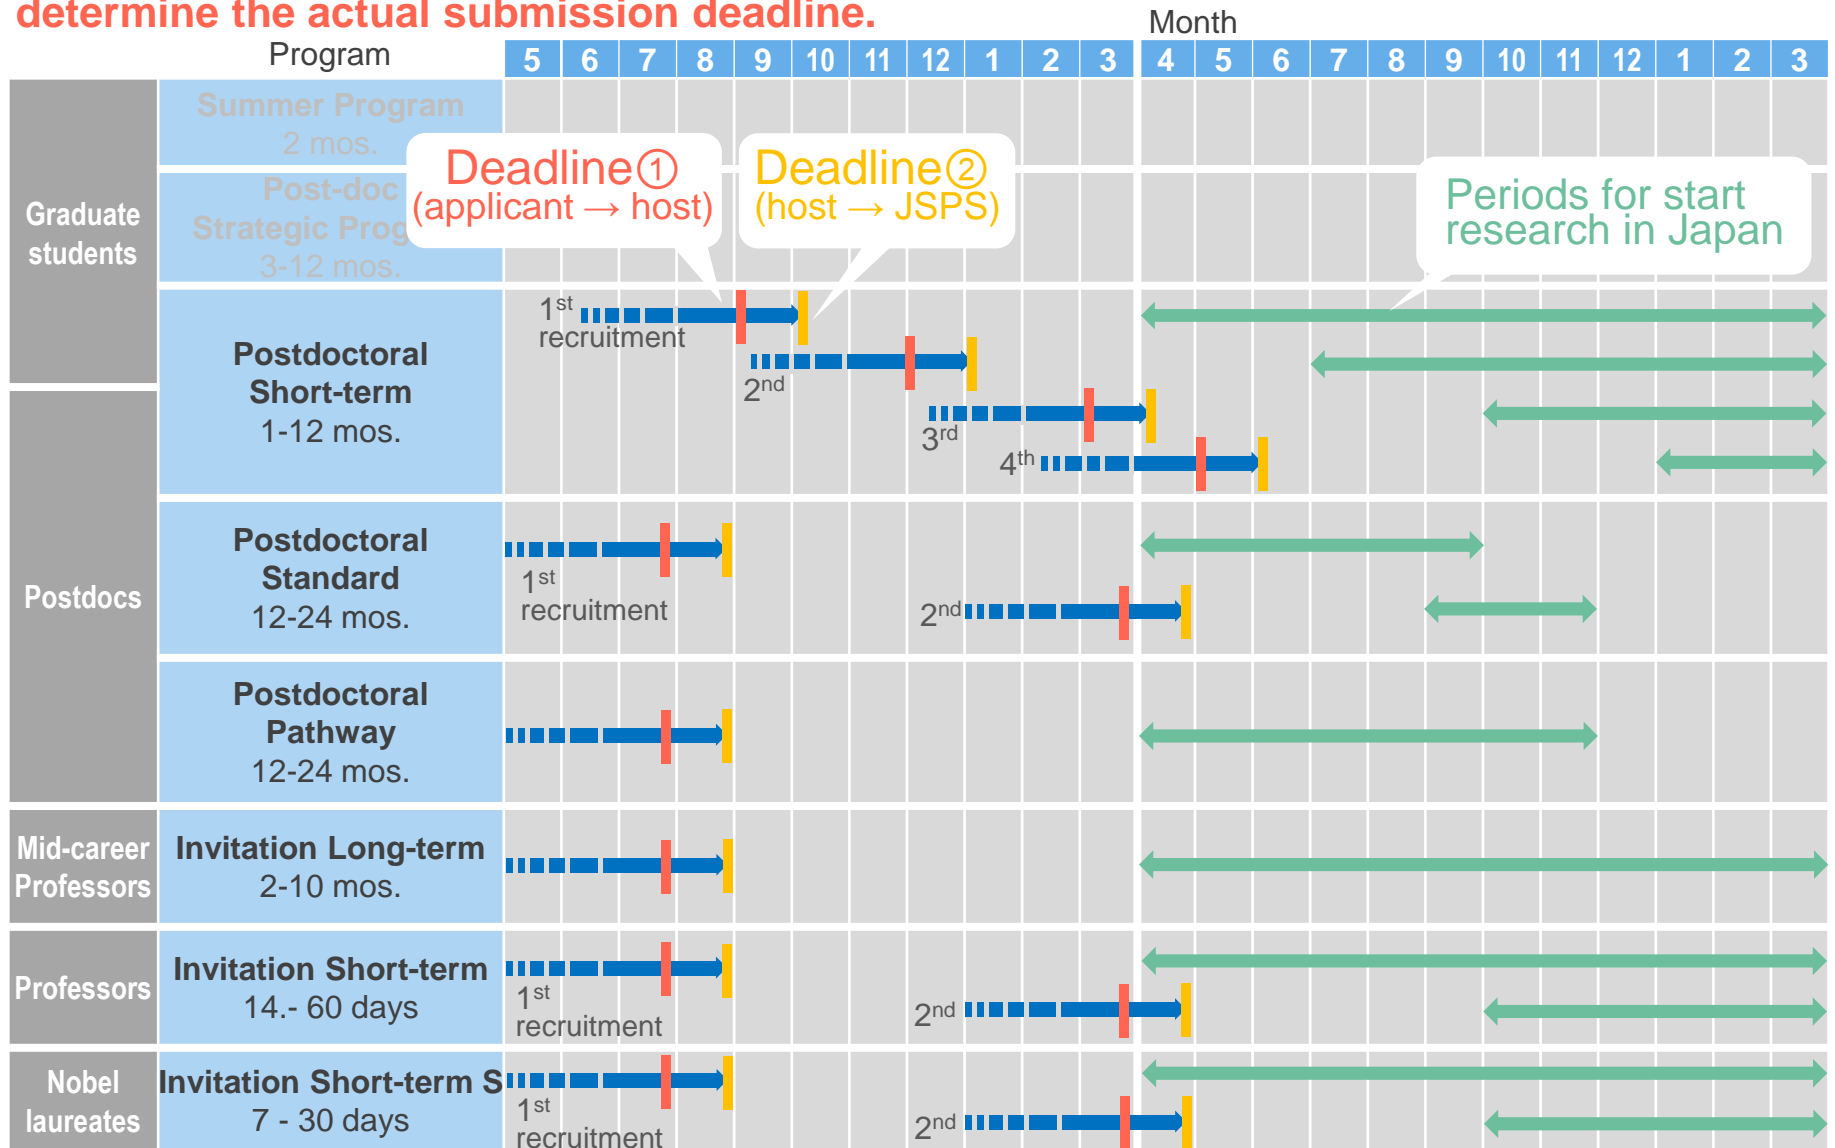

→
<http://ci.nii.ac.jp/en>

Fellowship

Predicted Schedule -Open Recruitment-

We strongly recommend preparing your application and contacting your host at least three months prior to the application deadline①.

Each university has a specific timeline so it is critical that you check with your host to determine the actual submission deadline.

Fellowship Predicted Schedule -Nominating Authorities-

We also receive applications through nominating authorities.

You can directly apply to these nominating authorities.

